DAY IN THE COURTS

CASES SET FOR APRIL TERM OF THE CRIMINAL DISTRICT COURT.

Very Little Doing in the Civil District Courts-Motion Day in the Eleventh District Court.

The cases for the April term of the crim nal district court of this county were focketed yesterday, Judge J. K. P. Gittasple altting for that purpose. As will be brough the term from day to day, begin ning with Monday, April 14, and continuing up to and including Tuesday, April 22 there being cleven nurrder exses on the decket. The case of C. T. Stephenson, under indictment for embezziement, is the last case set for the term, the date for which it is set being Wednesday, April 23.

In the Eleventh district court yesterday against the First National Bank of Houston for $5000 and costs. This was a friendly seit brought to collect money deposited in the bank without going into the administration of an estate. Mr. A. C. West died having on deposit to his credit in the First National Bank of this city the amount stud for. The estate owed no debts and there was no necessity for an administration except for the purpose of collecting this money. His winder, through her attorney brought and to collect, the bank agreeing in order that it might have an order of the court to protect the bank. Immediately upon the filing of the suit, the bank paid the money into court. brought to collect money deposited in
